

SOMERSET

DOWNTOWN HOTEL
180 W. 47th St.

Two hotels which possess every requirement of the person with inclinations toward modern conveniences and comfortable life.

Each hotel aims at supremacy in service.

Each hotel presents accommodations and furniture the equal of which is found only in the homes of finest and most exclusive character.

Each hotel has a restaurant in connection which offers the finest the market affords, prepared by masters in the art of cooking.

The rates are exceedingly reasonable and monthly and yearly concessions are made.

One is convenient to the downtown district—one is located in the residential district. Each is in a class by itself.

Investigate or write for particulars.

HOTEL BELLECLAIRE

NEW YORK

Broadway at 79th St.
Surface Cars at Door
Subway at 79th St.

Only a few minutes from the Shopping and Theatrical District.

One Good Hotel Appreciates Another.

Mr. David Lauber, who recently assumed the management of the Hotel Statler, at Buffalo, was a guest of the Hotel Belleclaire a short time before.

While with us he ate a Baked Apple for breakfast every morning, and at dinner he had Apple Pie for dessert. When he went to Buffalo he took with him the memory of these Belleclaire dishes. The first test he made of the service in his own Hotel was to order a Baked Apple for breakfast and Apple Pie for dinner. Apparently neither dish came quite up to the Belleclaire standard, so he wrote us a letter as follows:

"Buffalo, June 1, 1916.

"Dear Mr. Blackman:

"In talking to our steward about your celebrated Baked Apples he suggested that I write you and ask you for your formula. Personally, I have always considered the Baked Apples served in your restaurant to be better in flavor and appearance than any I have ever seen elsewhere—and I am fond of Baked Apples.

"This is the only favor I am going to ask of you now. A little later I probably will ask you to let me have the recipe for your wonderful Apple Pie. Very truly yours,

(Signed), "DAVID LAUBER."

The best test of the food served by one hotel is the acknowledgment of another hotel that it is the best anywhere.

It also shows that the "other hotel" is on the job when it seeks to improve its own service.

All of us hotel men learn from one another. That is the reason hotel service everywhere is so much better than it ever was.

Other lines of business are likewise bettering their service through co-operation. Co-operation is a great thing.

The Belleclaire acknowledges that its present high position in the hotel field is due as much to learning from other hotel managers as it is to whatever management qualities we possess.

ROBERT D. BLACKMAN.
